MIRROR

MALVERN HIGH SCHOOL
MALVERN, ARKANSAS
VOLUME 32

To a person who, through her keen understanding of students and their problems, has been most co-operative and helpful to the students on this campus. Her willingness to help has won her the admiration, respect, and love, of every boy and girl at M.H.S. She has listened to every wish and whim of students and has made their problems hers. We will long remember her lovable, laughing face, and through the years our admiration for her will grow. It is with deep appreciation that we dedicate this 1965 MIRROR to you . . .

MRS. R. O. SPEAKMAN

TO YOU
WE

DEDICATE

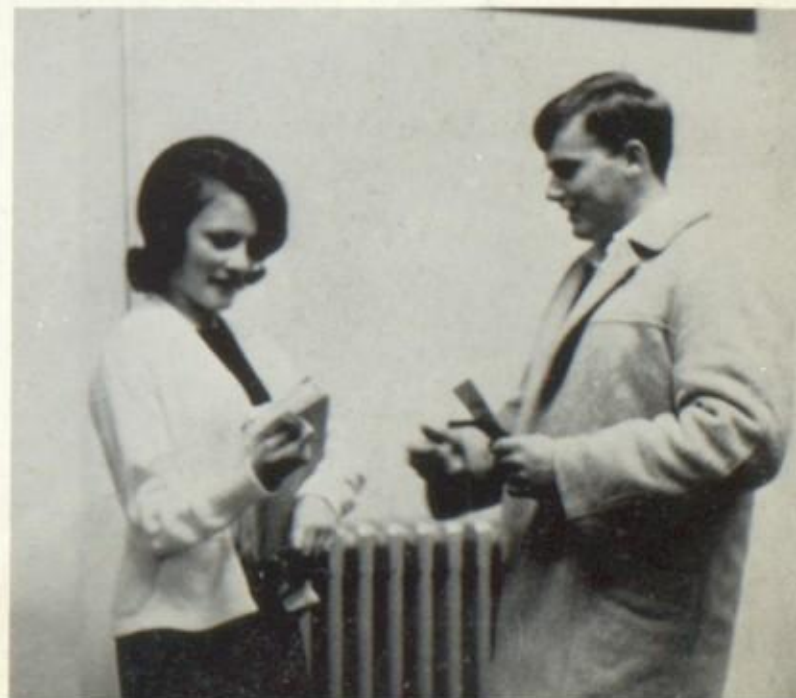

IN MEMORIAM

ROY C. HALPINE, JR.

Our hearts are grieved over the tragedy which struck Friday night, November 20, 1964, when a two car collision took the life of one of our high school seniors, Roy C. Halpine, Jr. Roy was a member of the FFA, the Student Council, and was on the staff of the Leopard Spots. This snap shot was taken on the morning of his death. Roy Halpine, who would have graduated with us this spring, quite suddenly and unexpectedly closed the door of life and departed from us never to return again.

The years of a person's life are remembered by recalling, not the humdrum of every day, but the events that stand out, giving meaning and purpose to his life. Neither is a year of school remembered by one's recalling the grades he made each day in geometry or the number of times he was tardy. Instead one recalls the general atmosphere and the big moments that typify the year. These big moments we have pictured for you are only a few of the many that occurred throughout the past year. In dividing our book of memories into seasons, we've tried to give you the high points of each part of the year beginning with welcoming an outstanding sophomore class and ending with the real stars of our book--the 1965 seniors. We hope you'll like this--our 1965 Mirror.

Weekly meeting of the school board.

We, of the sophomore class, were thrilled to leave junior high behind and to launch our new high school career. We enthusiastically took part in school activities and helped boost the spirit of ol' MHS -- we won the class count at every home football game this season!

After a confusing and hectic first semester, we became at least partially adjusted and felt we could cope with the scrambled halls and even geometry and Latin!

Our first year was a year of participation, success, and failure -- but one we're sure we'll never forget.

DAR GOOD CITIZEN

MISS SHARON ROBINSON

Each year the Senior Class chooses three senior girls who possess the qualities of truthfulness, loyalty, punctuality, dependability, service, courteousness, leadership, self-control, patriotism, and a pleasant personality. These girls must exhibit the ability to assume responsibility in their homes, school, churches, and nation.

After the selection of these girls, their names are submitted to the teachers of Malvern High School. The faculty then decides upon the student to whom the honor should be given. This year the DAR Good Citizenship Award went to Miss Sharon Robinson.

THROUGH THE STUDENT COUNCIL WE GOVERN OURSELVES

Serving as President of the Student Council this year is James Chancellor. Serving with him as Vice-President is Phil Clem.

The main functioning body of our school is the Student Council. Through the efforts of student representatives, student ideas and aims are presented. The energetic Council undertakes such projects as helping in the lunchroom and Little Store, and sponsoring a Leadership Conference. This year as a special service to the school the Council placed a marquee in front of the school for the purpose of announcing school events. The council earns money and promotes school spirit by selling tags for all football games and in-town basketball games, selling school stationery, school pennants, Christmas and assorted cards.

FIRST ROW: James Chancellor (President), Phil Clem (Vice-President), Judy Toler (Recording Secretary), Tommy Arr (Treasurer), Joe Tarlton (Parliamentarian), Jean McMillan (Corresponding Secretary), Danny Doss (Reporter). SECOND ROW: William Massey, Connie Crawford, Diane Anderson, Paula Burnett, Nancy Halbert, Carolyn James. THIRD ROW: Mike Samons, Jess Rucker, Diane Hardin, Jean Keesee, Felice Foland, Jan Parker. FOURTH ROW: Dale Horn, Ervin Golden, Mike Carver, Tommy Atkinson. FIFTH ROW: Robbie Richmond, Timmy Arr, Curtis Clayton. SIXTH ROW: Steve Efird, Bobby Voss, James Huguen, Mrs. Overton (Sponsor).

The Student Council has enjoyed a prosperous year under the leadership of James Chancellor.

Student Council members work hard to meet the thirst and hunger demands of the crowds at basketball games.

This year the Student Council presented a variety of assemblies for the enjoyment of the student body. Among them were "The Watchmen," a folk-singing trio from Ouachita; Sgt. Pike with his magic show and safety program; and "The Tophatters," a dance band from Arkansas State Teachers College. Malvern High was also honored to have as a speaker Angel Martinez, an evangelist. Perhaps one that will long be remembered was the assembly in which Coach Graham and Jerry Stovall sang. Other assemblies have uncovered talented youth in Malvern High School.

In the "This Atomic World" assembly, Freddy Duncan learns that he holds the radioactive ball.

In Student Council meetings the ways of democracy prevail as members vote by a show of hands.

The FFA is one of the largest and most active organizations in our schools. The purpose of the organization is to develop agriculture leadership, co-operation and citizenship. This year the local chapter has received many outstanding awards and has been very active in all phases of the program. The FFA sponsors a Father-Son Banquet each year for its members. Mr. Silas Smith is sponsor of the group.

Miss Jonas Harrison was elected FFA Sweetheart for this year.

Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of girls studying homemaking. As an integral part of the homemaking program, FHA provides opportunities for students to have additional experiences in planning and carrying out activities related to homemaking. The over-all goals of FHA are to help individuals improve personal, family, and community living, now and for the future. Mrs. Cecil Tate is the sponsor.

For a successful season in athletics, whether it be football, basketball, or what, a team must have good school support. It takes school spirit, team spirit, and sportsmanship to attain this needed support. The success of the Leopard Football team this year must be, in addition to fair and skillful play, attributed to the support rallied by the Cheerleaders and the Leopardettes.

Practice makes perfect in everything, including cheerleading.

The Leopardettes really enjoyed being under the direction of a new sponsor, Mr. Jerome Wesson, this year. The goals of promoting school and community spirit remained the same, but this year the Leopardettes were truly successful in achieving them.

This year a new method of selecting the Leopardettes was used. Girls wishing to be in Leopardettes were required to submit an application to the faculty, who then voted on the applicants. Members must maintain a good grade average and be a good citizen.

The Leopardettes earned money through rummage sales and car washes.

You call this working!?!?

THE 1964 MALVERN LEOPARDS

The 1964 season was one of considerable success for the MHS Leopards. Although they were not totally undefeated, the Leopards ended their season with a 10-2 record - the best in years. District as well as state honors were achieved by Leopard players. The team was coached through the season by a competent staff of coaches that did its part in molding the players into fine citizens as well as good athletes. The coaches as shown below are: Raymond Petty, Jerome Wesson, Bill Hunt, Don Chenault. Co-Captains at the right are: Stave Efird, Phil Clem.

Petty receives a pass and helps the Leopards to a 26-7 victory over Camden.

The Leopards proved almost too Catholic High.

To the student body of MHS, every game the Leopards played was a thriller, but a few stand out in our minds as the best.

A tough Benton team was stopped in the last minutes of the game with a pass interception by defensive-linebacker and All-District man Ronnie Mayton for a Leopard victory of 19-13.

We could never forget the Warren game and the Leopard's goal line stand. With time running out in the second quarter, Malvern's powerful defense held the Lumberjacks for four downs on the Leopard one. The insurance touchdown came when All-State quarterback Phil Clem faked to All-Stater Rob Wilson and then threw a pass to Jerry Petty (also an All-State player) who was alone in the end zone. The PAT was good and the Leopards broke up a 29-game winning streak with a 14-6 victory.

One of the two losses that the Leopards suffered this year was to the Catholic High Rockets. Although the Leopards lost by a score of 7-6, all the fans were extremely proud because we felt that every man had given all he had throughout the game.

This year our 1964 football team has chosen Miss Sharon Robinson, a senior, as the reigning monarch of the homecoming festivities. For the honor of princess, the team chose Miss Johnnie Drake, also a senior. These two girls, along with Queen Sharon's court, are excellent school representatives. Not only do they have poise and beauty, but scholastic abilities as well.

Homecoming is a season. To us it means parties, parades, and beautiful girls. But to the people for whom homecoming takes place, it is a time for renewal of high school acquaintances and the reliving of memories together. Because we will all soon be Alumni, we each have tried to make every homecoming season a marvelous time to remember.

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES

Mrs. Kyle has a good birds'-eye view of the cars and floats before coronation.

All eyes turn to Band Maid Phyllis Dedman as she receives her "flowers" from Band Captain, Tommy Arr.

Some people view this obviously versatile car with humor while others view with a more serious aspect.

HOMECOMING ESCORTS

Co-captains Steve Efird and Phil Clem escorted Queen Sharon. Bobby Voss and Steve Dedman escorted Princess Johnnie Drake. Escorting Senior Maid Judy Toler were Jerry Petty and Danny Pennington. Jim Kriigel and Ronnie Mayton escorted Junior Maid Nikki Lindvall. Sophomore Maid Janet Burrow was escorted by John Lock and Tommy Cummings. Escorting Cheerleader Maid Jane Dial were Phil Schlenker and Rob Wilson. Ray Scott and Jerry Gullett escorted Band Maid Phyllis Dedman. Tommy Nutt and Gerald Spencer escorted Leopardette Maid Felice Roland.

Again the Band takes first prize for the best car.

TICIPATE

Looking forward to senior status, we juniors came back to our second year at MHS. In preparation for the future - both as a senior and after graduation - we worked at algebra, chemistry, and English or History, scarcely noticing how long the nine months of hard labor were. We feel that at the end of our junior year, MHS can be proud of its new seniors - the Class of '66!!!

BASKETBALL CHEERLEADERS

On the right the cheerleaders are enjoying one of our rare snows. Below they are pictured in a formation in the gym.

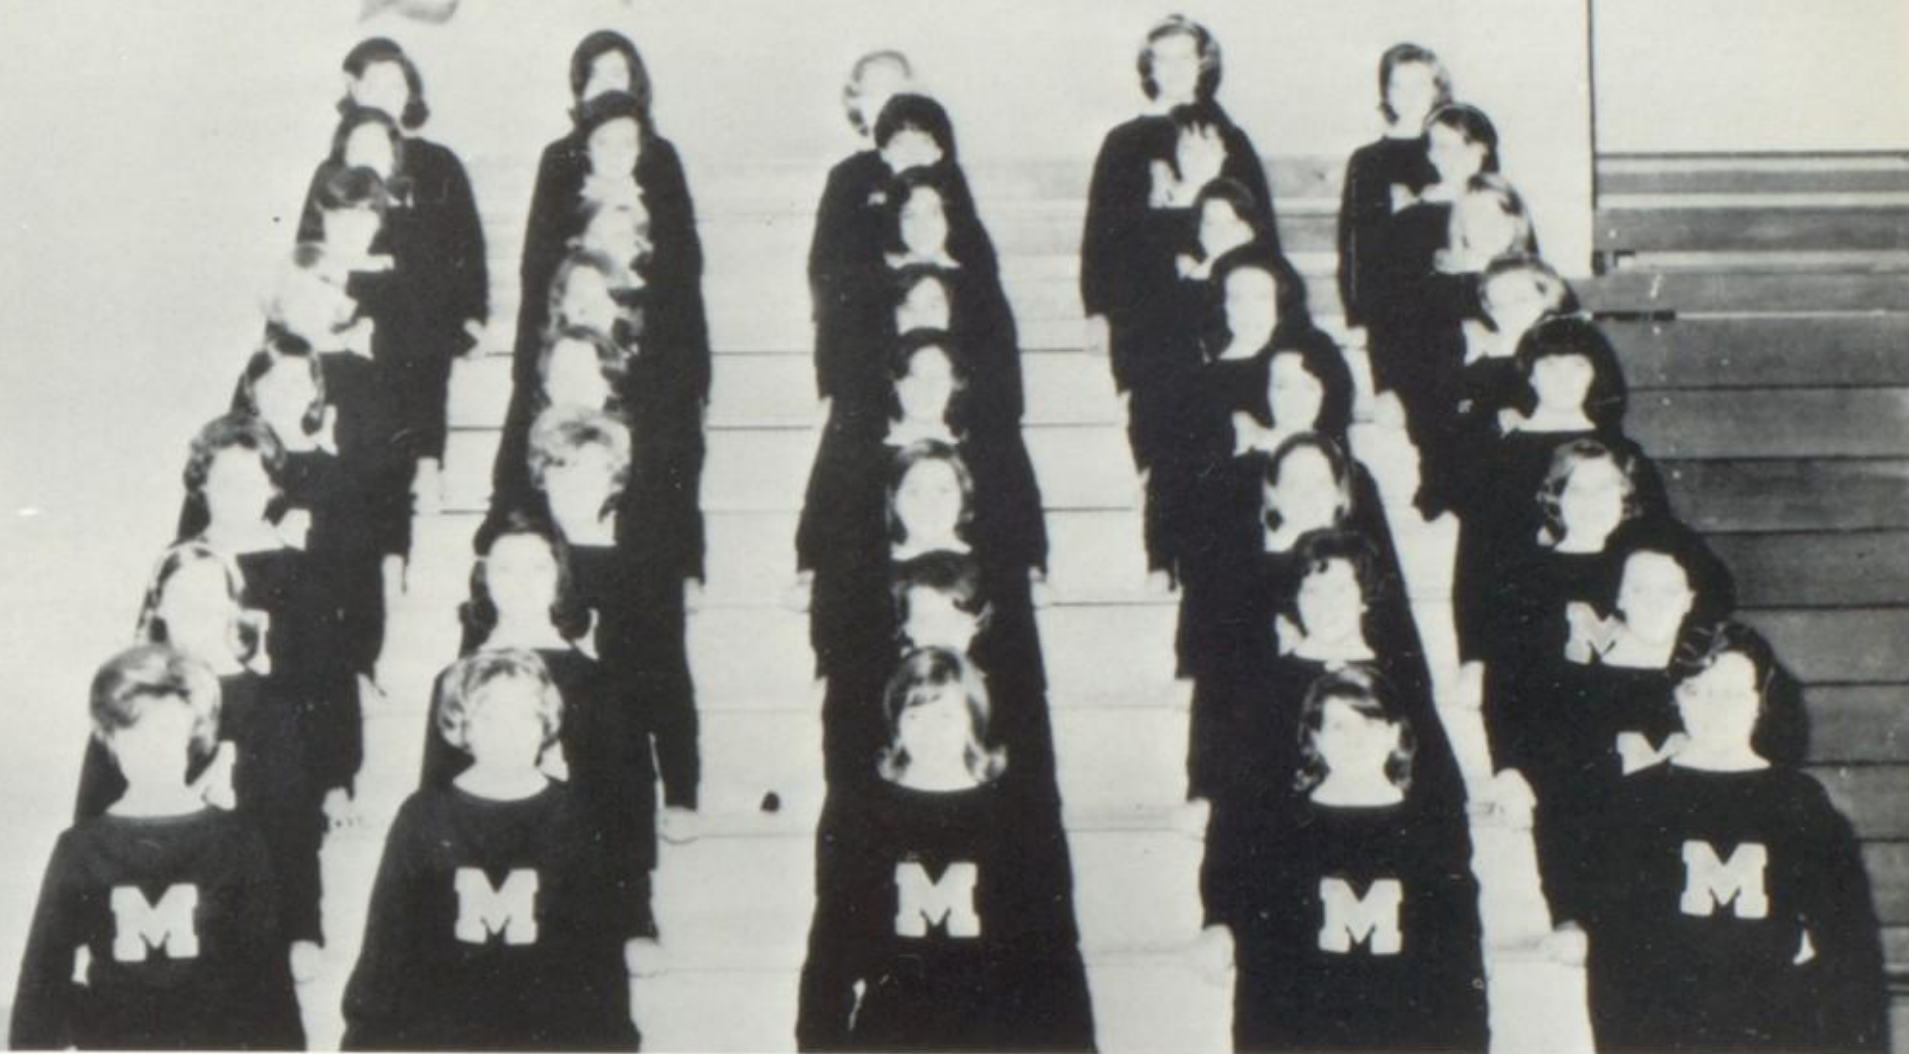

Among the Leopards most ardent fans this year were the varsity cheerleaders. Under the leadership of Co-Captains Sharon Robinson and Judy Toler, and their sponsor Mrs. Jerome Wesson, they have sponsored pep assemblies and rallies, led the students and fans in yells, and with that rousing "GO-TEAM-GO" --- cheered the basketball team on to victory.

1965 BASKETBALL ROYALTY

QUEEN
Jean McMillan

The 1965 Basketball Homecoming was a gala affair with the glowing Jean McMillan very ably reigning as Queen. Assisting her was her court of seven lovely maids all dressed in delicate spring shades. The Leopards showed the Magnolia team that the beautiful Queen and her radiant court had been replaced by a basketball team whose only goal was to capture a Panther for the Queen, her maids, and the attentive spectators. Following the excitement of the game came the relaxation and enjoyment of the homecoming dance. The Counts from Fayetteville played popular dance tunes and Miss Jean McMillan and Mr. Joe Tarlton were selected as Queen and King of Hearts. We know that the memory of yet another homecoming season will linger in the minds and hearts of the students of Malvern High School.

SENIOR

As seniors we have had a memorable year. This past year will stand out in our memories for a long, long time. ---Not just for the big things that took weeks of preparation, but for the little everyday things: the day we got our senior rings, our senior class meetings, measuring for our caps and gowns, having our pictures made for the annual, the pep assemblies and the ball games, buying the school paper, the day we got our annuals, the hours spent in the guidance office preparing for college, just to name a few. Some of us will remember these things for themselves while others will remember some for the classes they enabled us to miss---but all of us will remember them . . .

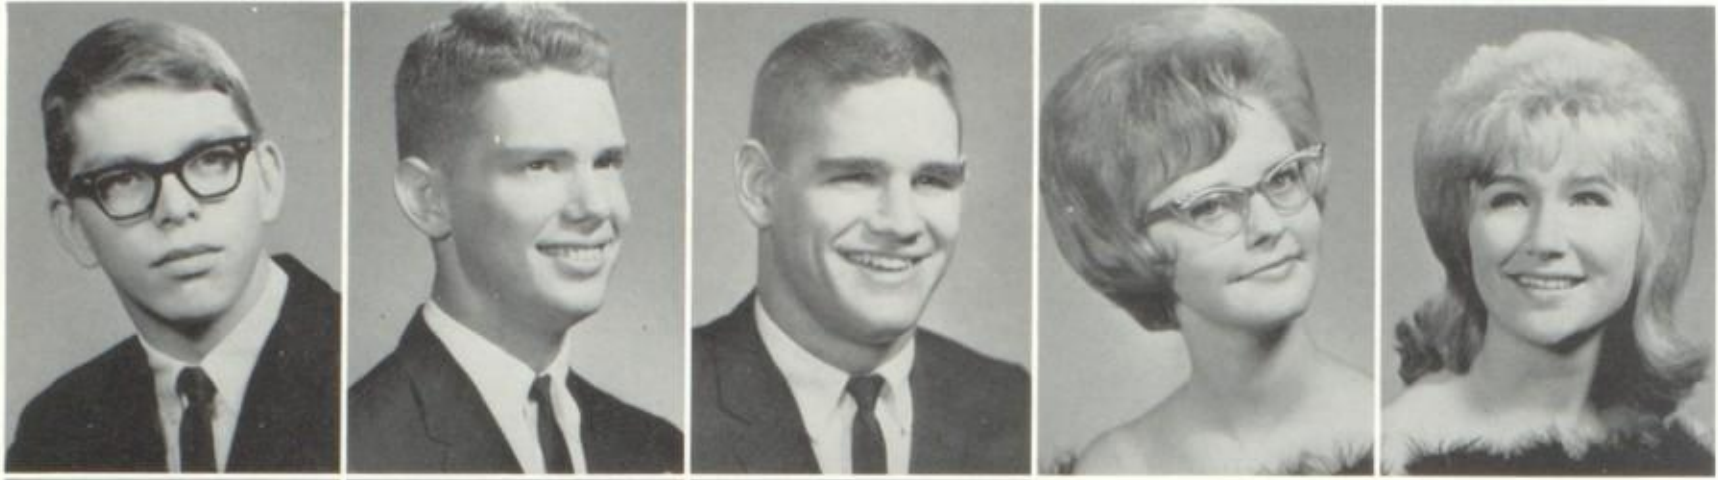

Then there were the big things: the homecomings and dances, the Prom, Senior Play, Class Day, Baccalaureate, and last of all, our Commencement. As we march toward the future, these happenings will live in our memories from this our senior year at Malvern High School as its graduating

After several years of hard work, the band finally got new uniforms. For football season and parades the band stands out in a uniform of black, orange, and white. The uniform features a Leopard head on a white background on the front and a black "M" on an orange background on the back. This year the band participated in the Arkansas Livestock Show Parade in Little Rock in October. For concert season the band wears a smart black suit with white shirt and black bow tie.

The band and choir, under the direction of Mr. Richard Coke, present a Christmas and Spring Concert each year. Each year both groups attend both district and state festivals. This year at Christmas, the band and choir presented a concert at the Benton Unit of the State Hospital.

A director is as vital to a band as the instruments.

HONOR SOCIETY STRESSES SCHOLASTIC ACHIEVEMENT

The National Honor Society was established to stimulate the scholarship, leadership, service, and character of the students in the secondary school. The object of the Malvern Chapter is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in pupils of Malvern High School. Membership is open to juniors and seniors who meet the high standards of the club. This year the club has been conducting a survey to find out what past graduates are presently doing. Mrs. Hilliard Jones is the sponsor.

Honor Society members quietly listen to the proceedings of the meeting.

The Library Club is composed of a group of students who are really up on how to keep the library in A-1 condition. They also keep us informed about the latest books and authors. Those bulletin boards, especially designed and created by the club in so many clever ways, never fail to capture our attention. Under the capable leadership of their sponsor, Mrs. Havis Overton, the girls in the Library Club keep the library as up to date as the latest newspaper headline. Modern fiction stands on the shelves beside old classics that have weathered the test of time. These student librarians help take care of the library during class and activity period. Their courteous assistance makes bookhunting a pleasure instead of a bore. It seems to us that their goals of stimulating an interest among the pupils in the use of books and of improving library service are attained.

Librarians not only help students with assignments but also keep the library attractive to behold.

O-o-o-oh! These wild Science Club meetings are killing me.

The Science Club, better known as the Atomic Bums, again had a big year. The club has always enjoyed a large membership and this year was no exception. As usual the Science Club sponsored the annual Science Fair in March. To earn money for the Fair, the members sold bars of chocolate candy. In sponsoring the Science Fair, the club strives to increase its members knowledge of science. This year the club was under the sponsorship of Mrs. Marguerite Robinson.

Sponsored by the social studies faculty, the Debate Club provides its members with instruction and practical experience in argumentation and formal debate. Frequent intramural and interscholastic meets fill the year's schedule. The 1964-1965 high school question was "RESOLVED." That nuclear weapons should be controlled by international organization.

What do you mean you're not voting ORANGE!!

FFA boys are very busy erecting a picturesque waterfall.

You call me unethical, and then you pull a stunt like this!!

LEFTOVER CAPTIONS AND PICTURES WE DIDN'T WANT TO WASTE

Dress-up day in the halls of MHS.

Parlez-vous francais?

First period typing takes a speed test??

Famous paintings spark lively discussion.

All the world's a stage.

Calendar girl contestants anxiously await cue for beauty parade.

Students classify biology specimens.

The "Swim" and the "Freddie" were two of the dance fads of the season.

Lunchroom staff prepares varied meals.

The traffic was bumper to bumper after the game.

It wasn't like this all year.

KILL THE UMPIRE!!!

At first sophomores found new surroundings confusing but soon they became quite familiar with the campus.

P.E. boys add spice to Homecoming Parade.

A term paper is one of the many projects of Survey.

English class acts out Macbeth.

Mrs. Hathaway inspects newly arrived specimens.

Grouped around the table, candidates audition for Senior Play.

This is not a beauty bit
Or some kind of test;
It's just life as we live it
At M. H. S.

She said . . . and then he said . . . and I told him . . . ?

Ah! Goose, you've got to be kidding.

The MHS Stag line??

Now, students --
look alive.

Yeah . . . I know--

Sometimes they study.

Creative hair-styling?

Is this part of the extracurricular activities??

Bottoms up!

Lunchroom staff plans varied meals.

You'll never get to class at that rate.

Keep your hands off of OUR milk!

It's every man for himself---usually.

Steve, by this time Janet should be able to find the band room?

And away we go!

When we find out who swiped our pants--

Will that thing ever come down?

Sharon gives unwanted but nevertheless heard advice.

A MESSAGE FROM THE STAFF

It has been a pleasure to try to be your guides through this year at Malvern High School. Betty Mayton and Rita Fiser have been our co-editors, and Nancy Halbert has been our business manager. Elaine Smith assisted by Anna Beth Phillips has done the work on classes. Jess Rucker assisted by Judy Burks and Nancy Halbert has been responsible for the sports section. Beverly Estes was in charge of organizations. She was assisted by Judy Estes, who also worked on campus life as did Judy Burks and Anna Beth Phillips. Charlotte Efurd has been responsible for features. Sharon Greene was our typist and Curtis Clayton our photographer. All of us including our advisor, Mrs. Starks, have worked on copy.

We sincerely hope we have made a book of memories you will treasure in the years to come. It seems fitting that we should end our book with a song that has a special meaning for each of us.

ALMA MATER

Hail ole Malvern High School
Hats off to you.
Ever do we find you
Loyal, tried, and true---
In our hearts forever
Your guiding light will shine
And thru' the years
We think of you
Alma Mater mine.
